MARKET RESISTS CALL IN PRICES

Tendency to Depression Largely Overcome by Heavy Buying of Few Individual Stocks.

THE CLOSING WAS IRREGULAR

London Movement to Take Profits Made the First Hour Heavy-Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Some tendency to depression had to be contested in today's stock market and this was affected by the large buying of a few individual stocks, notably, Ontario and Western, which was rashed up in the final dealings to 63.3-8. This did not prevent an irregular tone for the closing. Union Pacific was rather heavy throughout, rising only a small fraction over last night at any time and this had a sentimental influence on the whole market. New York Central was another strong feature and it was supposed to be associated with Ontario and Western. A number of the fraction and Western. A number of the fraction of the heavy tone of the pretion of the heavy tone of the pretion of the same another realized to apprehension of an influence was overcome there was another realized to apprehension of an influence was considered. Increase for week ending March 24th 525,900 pounds.

Nov. 11,901,200 pounds sold from September 1st 1903, to March 24th, 1904, 12,807 pounds; decrease for 1905, 2,95,00 pounds.

The receipts this week were the haviest for the past two months. The tobacco was in good condition, except a considerable portion was in yelf second to the past two months. The follower week the price to some extent. The quality of the offerings were generally good, being fairly well divided between common, medium and good, with some fine leaf and wrappers. Prices on all grades were about up to quotations, with the common grades quite active. The planters report about all of the planting the price of 1953 crop will be planted.

Danville Tobacco Market. Reported for The Times-Dispatch by Dibrel Brothers.)

(Reported for The Times-Dispatch by Dibrell Brothers.)

Danville, Va., March 25, 1955.

Our sales this week have been the largest in this crop, and will total about 2,200,009 pounds. This is the largest week's sales in the history of the market, except for the week ending March 12, 1991, when something over 2,300,000 pounds were sold. It speaks well for the market to say that the facilities of both productions and the sale of the control of the market to say that the facilities of both productions are sold of the sales will for the market to say that the facilities of both produce has been linearled with the ulmost ease and dispatch, and without a blocked sale. All of the warehouse floors have been cleared each day and made ready in ample time for the following day. The condition of the tobacco has been very soft. This will probably necessitate many of the buyers to put on a night force to handle it to keep the tobacco from damaging.

The quality of the offerings has been the poorest of the crop, and is far below an average of what has been sold heretofore. There has been more nondestrive and content any times and fewer wrappers; in fact, good wrappers seen to have disappeared nearly slopether from the sales.

It is remarkable, considering the quantity of tobacco, its quality and condition, that prices have held up so firmly. All grades are siffer, except common fillers, which are easier. Good and fine wrappers show a very marked advance.
